

APPENDIX A
SELECTED SITE PHOTOGRAPHS

Photograph No. 1 – NASA BioAstronautics Facility, Johnson Space Center, Houston, Texas
 The Houston Lighting and Power canal near the proposed site.
 Facing west. (HAB 05/00)

Photograph No. 2 – NASA BioAstronautics Facility, Johnson Space Center, Houston, Texas
 The drainage swale that parallels the HL&P canal on the proposed site.
 Facing east. (HAB 05/00)

Photograph No. 3 – NASA BioAstronautics Facility, Johnson Space Center, Houston, Texas
 The diagonal swale traversing southern portion of the proposed site.
 Facing southwest. (HAB 05/00)

Photograph No. 4 – NASA BioAstronautics Facility, Johnson Space Center, Houston, Texas
 The drainage channels bordering the proposed location of the running track.
 Facing southeast. (HAB 05/00)

Photograph No. 5 – NASA BioAstronautics Facility, Johnson Space Center, Houston, Texas
 The groundwater monitoring wells located on the proposed site.
 Facing north. (HAB 05/00)

Photograph No. 6 – NASA BioAstronautics Facility, Johnson Space Center, Houston, Texas
 The trees located around the perimeter of the proposed site.
 Facing northwest. (HAB 05/00)

Photograph No. 7 – NASA BioAstronautics Facility, Johnson Space Center, Houston, Texas
The depressional wetland located on the proposed site.
Facing north. (HAB 05/00)

Photograph No. 8 – NASA BioAstronautics Facility, Johnson Space Center, Houston, Texas
Proposed location of the NASA BioAstronautics Facility.
Facing southeast. (HAB 05/00)

Photograph No. 9 – NASA BioAstronautics Facility, Johnson Space Center, Houston, Texas
 Building 28, the Auxiliary Chiller Facility, bordering the southwest portion of the proposed site.
 Facing southwest. (HAB 05/00)

Photograph No. 10 – NASA BioAstronautics Facility, Johnson Space Center, Houston, Texas
 Buildings on 5th street are located to the northwest of the proposed site.
 Facing west. (HAB 05/00)

Photograph No. 11– NASA BioAstronautics Facility, Johnson Space Center, Houston, Texas
Buildings on Avenue B are located to the northeast of the proposed site.
Facing northeast. (HAB 05/00)

Photograph No. 12 – NASA BioAstronautics Facility, Johnson Space Center, Houston, Texas
A view of the proposed property and property bordering to the southeast.
Facing south. (HAB 05/00)

Photograph No. 13– NASA BioAstronautics Facility, Johnson Space Center, Houston, Texas
A pipeline corridor crosses the site in the area of the proposed running track.
Facing south. (HAB 05/00)